Through: Coordinator of School and Family Programs
Status: Contract
Compensation: Eligible to receive a stipend of $25/hour (up to 100 hours)
Applications will be accepted beginning January 1, 2020 through April 1, 2020.

POSITION SUMMARY

The National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum seeks to contract one or more classroom teachers for its Teacher-in-Residence Program, an extended professional development opportunity for educators from K-12 schools to learn about the resources and educational materials available through the Museum and to create new resources for use by other teachers. Teachers create programming, interpretive materials, and program content that make the Museum’s collections and temporary exhibitions accessible and enjoyable, especially for preK-12 students. The Teacher-in-Residence Program offers classroom educators a unique opportunity to use primary sources, art, and artifacts to excite their students with curriculum-connections about the American West in ways that standard textbooks could never replicate.

ESSENTIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Essential duties include the following. Other duties may be assigned.

- Engage in current thinking about object-oriented and place-based inquiry
- Explore the Museum’s collections on view in the galleries, online, and in the Museum’s extensive archives and library
- Develop at least one unit based on primary sources to be used in their classroom or school
- Assist with one on-going Museum project during their residency
- Increase their understanding of museums as places for project-based student activities
- The emphasis is to link the Museum with teachers from schools with underserved student populations in urban and rural school districts. Educators will spend most of their time engaging with the Museum’s collections and developing lesson plans to use in their classrooms and in the Museum with students. When the teachers return to their schools in the fall, they spend part of their classroom time presenting their projects to their own students, and to a wider education audience.
- Incorporate knowledge of best teaching practices; project-based work; developmental, cognitive, and social skills; learning theories; educational evaluation; and 21st-century learning skills into program offerings with and for teachers and students

SKILLS/QUALIFICATIONS

- Knowledge of learning theories and Oklahoma State content standards
- Ability to effectively collaborate with in-house teams and external groups
- Ability to conduct art, historical, and visitor research
National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum, Oklahoma City, OK

- Ability to communicate effectively in group and individual situations as well as in written form; strong public speaking skills.
- Proven organizational skills and ability to work on multiple, detailed projects simultaneously.
- Computer literate (MS Word, PowerPoint, Excel, social media)
- Degree in Education and/or related field and at least two years of experience as a classroom teacher
- Excellent written, oral, and interpersonal communication skills
- Outgoing personality with strong interpersonal skills, tact, and diplomacy
- Work effectively with a wide range of constituencies in a diverse community
- Teacher certification and/or bilingual (English/Spanish) skills are a plus

TO APPLY

The Teacher in Residence Program is destined to become a major vehicle to reach and serve teachers, and to increase the Museum’s offerings by partnering with teachers rather than programming for teachers to fulfill our shared educative mission.

Please submit a cover letter, application (on following page), and required references to Human Resources, at hr@nationalcowboymuseum.org. No phone calls, please. Position will close April 1st and interview will begin after that time.
The Teacher-in-Residence Program is an extended professional development opportunity for up to two educators from area K–12 schools to learn about the resources and educational materials available through the Museum and to create new resources for use by other teachers.
